'The Flight May Now Be Ended' Line Entry In ACARS

It's wise to monitor your Flight Log periodically throughout your flight to ensure its data is being logged/recorded and transmitted correctly.

If, at any time _before_ you land and taxi to a stop at the end of your flight, you see the entry below in your Flight Log, your PIREP will be Rejected.

`[xx:xx:xx] The flight may now be ended`

No hours, distance or points will be awarded – and we will not be able to fix it.
