

Pilot Profile

In this final section of the Navigation Bar, you'll find items specific to you.

 A dark grey horizontal bar. On the left is a pilot icon (a stick figure with a red and white striped shirt) next to a red progress bar. To the right of the progress bar is the text "BILL H. WAT182" followed by a small downward-pointing chevron.	Your personal statistics may be found in the final item on the right side of the Navigation Bar. In this example, the Crew Member is Bill H., his Pilot ID is WAT182 and his Pilot Rank is shown.
 A dark grey box with a light grey upward-pointing chevron and the text "NEXT RANK". Below this is a red progress bar. To the right of the progress bar, the text "767 HOURS" is visible, followed by a red progress bar and a trophy icon.	These Graphics show the number of flight hours and points you must obtain before you can be promoted to the next higher rank. Here, as an example, this Pilot must fly 767 Hours and accumulate 7,237 Points in order to be promoted to the next Rank – and both requirements must be met in order for the promotion to be awarded.
 A dark grey vertical menu. It contains several items, each with an icon and text: a person icon for "PROFILE", a notepad icon for "LOGBOOK", a gear icon for "SETTINGS", a right-pointing arrow for "LOGOUT", a horizontal separator line, a speech bubble icon for "DISCORD", and a dollar sign icon for "DONATE".	By clicking the chevron to the right of your name... ... the drop-down to the left will appear. Click any of these to access its contents.  A dark grey horizontal bar. On the left is a pilot icon (a stick figure with a red and white striped shirt) next to a red progress bar.
