

Online ATC

Do not use the flight number given to you when bidding on a flight. All pilots must use their pilot ID shown below – do not use WAC, WAE or WAX.

Your Call Sign	Your Verbal Call Sign For Radio Calls
WAT + Pilot ID	Walker + Pilot ID
If your Pilot ID is 300 , you flight number is always WAT300 .	When making radio calls, if your Pilot ID is 300 , depending on your region in the world , you refer to yourself as Walker 300 or Walker Three Hundred or Walker Three-Zero-Zero .
If your Pilot ID is 1200 , you flight number is always WAT1200 .	When making radio calls, if your Pilot ID is 1200 , depending on your region in the world , you refer to yourself as Walker 1200 or Walker Twelve Hundred or Walker One-Two-Zero-Zero .

It is not mandatory you fly using online ATC services; however, we strongly encourage it because it helps spread awareness of who we are. Please remember your behavior online reflects on all of us and our virtual airline. If you are uncomfortable, feel free to ask for tips or assistance in the respective ATC channels on Discord - our community will be more than happy to help.

If you are a member of the Walker Patreon program, you may use other callsigns EXCEPT during Walker Events.

Click any link below to view live flights on the respective ATC Network.
